

Kansas Grain Sorghum Producers Association Scholarship APPLICATION

BACKGROUND: KGSPA is a statewide organization, formed in 1975, that represents more than 450 dues-paying sorghum producers from across Kansas. The Kansas Grain Sorghum Producers Association is an affiliate of the National Sorghum Producers Association. KGSPA also works with the Kansas Grain Sorghum Commission to enhance the profitability of grain sorghum through market development, research, promotion and education through the responsible use of sorghum checkoff funds. KGSPA is a group of grain sorghum producers who develop and implement policies and programs on a state and national level to help protect and advance the sorghum grower's interests.

ELIGIBILITY: Any undergraduate student in the College of Agriculture at Kansas State University who will be enrolled as a junior or senior in the 2007-2008 school year. Preference will be given to children of Kansas Grain Sorghum Producers Association members.
